

Students

Scholarships for African Students of German Studies and German as a Foreign Language – Thesis Preparation (Master's or Maîtrise)

The programme supports foreign students to prepare their thesis at a university in Germany for the duration of one semester. Applicants are eligible to participate if they successfully completed their second or third academic year. Please note that a good knowledge of German is required for participation in this program.

www.daad.de/germanstudiesafrica

Study Trips / Seminars for Groups of Foreign Students to Germany

The programme aims at providing students with subject-related knowledge by arranging appropriate visits, tours, and information meetings, or by organizing subject-related seminars and practical courses with universities, companies, and possibly public institutions.

Master's Candidates

EPOS: Scholarships for Postgraduate Courses with Special Relevance to Developing Countries

The scholarship is designed for postgraduate courses to young professionals in leading positions from developing countries with the opportunity to engage in postgraduate education and training in their particular field or profession. The typical scholarship holder will have completed an academic degree far beyond average and at least two years of related professional experience. The duration is 12-24 months, depending on the particular institution.

In-Country Scholarship Opportunities

Additionally, DAAD offers In-Region scholarships to support postgraduate training in a field with strong relevance to national development.

PhD Candidates

Research Grants – Doctoral Programmes in Germany

DAAD research grants provide young foreign academics and scientists with an opportunity to carry out research and continue their education in Germany. There are funding programmes for various qualification phases and stages in a career. The grants also promote the exchange of experience and networking amongst colleagues. The aim of this grant programme is to support doctoral projects in Germany.

One Year Grants & Short Term Research Grants

DAAD research grants provide foreign doctoral candidates and young academics and scientists with an opportunity to carry out research and continue their education in Germany. There are funding programmes for various qualification phases and stages in a career. The grants also promote the exchange of experience and networking amongst colleagues.

In-Country Scholarship Opportunities

Additionally, DAAD offers In-Region scholarships to support postgraduate training in a field with strong relevance to national development.

Postdocs

Staff exchange in Sub-Saharan Africa

The purpose of the programme is to promote inter-university co-operation through academic mobility and to enhance the quality of teaching and research at Sub-Saharan African universities. The fellowship is designed as a subsidy to the scholar's current salary / study leave income and applications may come from all subject areas with strong relevance to national or regional development.

Alumni

DAAD is offering various activities for its alumni to link between alumni themselves, alumni and their German host institutions, as well as with the DAAD, and maintain professional and personal ties with Germany. The activities include:

Specialist Literature Programme
Smaller Equipment Grants
Smaller Alumni Events
Alumni Special Projects
Letter Magazine

www.daad.de/alumni

Re-invitation Programme for Former Scholarship Holders (WE)

The Re-invitation Programme helps the DAAD to maintain contact with its former scholarship holders (DAAD Alumni) who studied in Germany for at least 6 months. DAAD Alumni can apply for a re-invitation to Germany with the purpose of completing a research or work project at a state higher education institution or non- university research institute. The Re-invitation Programme offers research stays in Germany from 1 to 3 months, depending on the applicant's work schedule and cannot be extended. Applications are open to all PhD holders affiliated to Sudanese universities or research institutions.

Capacity Building

DIES-Training Course Management Of Internationalisation Leibniz Universität Hannover, the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), and the German Rectors' Conference (HRK) are jointly organizing the DIES Training Course "Management of Internationalisation". The key objective of the training course is to qualify university staff (either international office staff or higher education managers responsible for coordinating international activities) from selected countries of Africa, Latin America, the Middle East, and Asia, to manage processes and tasks of internationalisation in higher education. The programme will enable the participants to build up improved and more effective structures of internationalisation at their home universities.

www.daad.de/dies-training

Bilateral Master's Programmes

German as a Foreign Language

This international Joint Master Programme between Ain Shams University, Egypt and University of Leipzig, Germany targets Bachelor graduates in the field of German Studies who are looking for a challenging master programme that focuses on becoming a German teacher at schools and universities in Sudan.

www.daad.eg/studying-german-in-egypt