- Study Trips / Seminars for Groups of Foreign Students to Germany
- The programme aims at providing students with subject-related knowledge by arranging appropriate visits, tours, and information meetings, or by organizing subject-related seminars and practical courses with universities, companies, and possibly public institutions.

Master's Candidates

- EPOS: Scholarships for Postgraduate Courses with Special Relevance to Developing Countries
- The scholarship is designed for postgraduate courses to young professionals in leading positions from developing countries with the opportunity to engage in postgraduate education and training in their particular field or profession. The typical scholarship holder will have completed an academic degree far beyond average and at least two years of related professional experience. The duration is 12-24 months, depending on the particular institution.

In-Country/In-Region Scholarship

Opportunities(MSc & PhD)

Additionally, DAAD offers In-Region scholarships to support postgraduate training in a field with strong relevance to national development.

PhD Candidates

- Research Grants – Doctoral Programmes in Germany
- DAAD research grants provide young foreign academics and scientists with an opportunity to carry out research and continue their education in Germany. There are funding programmes for various qualification phases and stages in a career. The grants also promote the exchange of experience and networking amongst colleagues. The aim of this grant programme is to support doctoral projects in Germany.

One Year Grants & Short Term Research Grants

- DAAD research grants provide foreign doctoral candidates and young academics and scientists with an opportunity to carry out research and continue their education in Germany. There are funding programmes for various qualification phases and stages in a career. The grants also promote the exchange of experience and networking amongst colleagues.

Postdocs

- Staff exchange in Sub-Saharan Africa
- The purpose of the programme is to promote inter-university co-operation through academic mobility and to enhance the quality of teaching and research at Sub-Saharan African universities. The fellowship is designed as a subsidy to the scholar's current salary / study leave income and applications may come from all subject areas with strong relevance to national or regional development.

Alumni

- DAAD is offering various activities for its alumni to link between alumni themselves, alumni and their German host institutions, as well as with the DAAD, and maintain professional and personal ties with Germany. The activities include:
